South China Insurance Typhoon Warranty Clause (A)

113.12.13(113)華產企字第 403 號函備查

Notwithstanding anything contained in this policy or clauses attached hereto, it is warranted that the insured vessel shall not sail from the sheltered port when there is a typhoon or storm warning at the port or when her destination or intended route would be within the forecasted path of the typhoon or storm announced at port of sailing, or destination or any intervening ports of calls.

If vessel have sailed out of port prior to there being such a warning, and the vessel would be within the forecasted path of the typhoon or storm, vessel must immediately return to the typhoon shelter or if circumstances do not permit, proceed to the nearest available safe anchorage.

Vessel may deviate from the above warranty when acting under a directive or notice from the local or nearest port authority or maritime safety authority, or when the compliance of said warranty put the vessel in an imminent danger.
