South China Insurance Terrorism Exclusion Clause (B)

111.10.26(111)華產企字第191號函備查

The Insurer shall not be liable under this policy for any loss, damage, expense or liability directly or indirectly, occasioned by, happening through or in consequence of act of “Terrorism” committed by any person or persons acting on behalf of or in connection with any others.

In this exclusion, “Terrorism” means:

1. any unlawful act, attempted act or threatened act, whether involving violence or the use of force or not, including without limitation acts that involve:
 - (a) injury to a person;
 - (b) damage to property;
 - (c) endangering a person’s life;
 - (d) creating a risk to the health or safety of the public or a section of the public;
 - (e) interfering with or disruption an electronic system; or
 - (f) causing economic disruption, damage or harm;
2. that act is designed to, or does, influence or resist a lawful or de facto government or intimidate or coerce the public or a section of the public; and
3. that act, from its nature or context, is done in connection with political, social, religious or ideological causes or objectives.
