South China Insurance Claim Control Clause (B)

101.04.13(101)華產企字第 374 號函備查

The (Re)insurers shall have full control of the settlement of claims against the (Re)insured under the original policy. The (Re)insured undertakes to give immediate advise to (re)insurers of any occurrence which may give rise to a claim hereunder as soon as they are themselves made aware of it and agrees to follow the written instructions of the (re)insurers in relation thereto. In no case shall the (Re)insured make any admission of liability under the original policy without the consent in writing of the (re)insurers having been first obtained.
