SOUTH CHINA INSURANCE PREMIUM PAYMENT CLAUSE (LSW 3000)

101.04.13(101)華產企字第 384 號函備查

The (Re)Insured undertakes that premium will be paid in full to Underwriters within ____ days of inception of this policy (or, in respect of installment premiums, when due).

If the premium due under this policy has not been so paid to Underwriters by the ____ day from the inception of this policy (and, in respect of installment premiums, by the date they are due) Underwriters shall have the right to cancel this policy by notifying the (Re)Insured via the broker in writing. In the event of cancellation, premium is due to Underwriters on a pro rata basis for the period that Underwriters are on risk but the full policy premium shall be payable to Underwriters in the event of a loss or occurrence prior to the date of termination which gives rise to a valid claim under this policy.

It is agreed that Underwriters shall give not less than 15 days prior notice of cancellation to the (Re)Insured via the broker. If premium due is paid in full to Underwriters before the notice period expires, notice of cancellation shall automatically be revoked. If not, the policy shall automatically terminate at the end of the notice period.

Unless otherwise agreed, the Leading Underwriter (and Agreement Parties if appropriate) are authorised to exercise rights under this clause on their own behalf and on behalf of all Underwriters participating in this contract.

If any provision of this clause is found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability will not affect the other provisions of this clause which will remain in full force and effect.

Where the premium is to be paid through a London Market Bureau, payment to Underwriters will be deemed to occur on the day of delivery of a premium advice note to the Bureau.
